Costa impressed with Railway Monument – Draper

24 October 2003

Independent Member for Tamworth Peter Draper has thanked the Minister for Transport, Michael Costa, for his visit to Werris Creek yesterday.

Minister Costa visited the Werris Creek Railway station after accepting an invitation extended to him by Mr Draper.

Mr Draper and Minister Costa met with members of the Australian Railway Monument Working Committee and were taken a tour of the restorations of the Railway station as well as being briefed on the plans for the Australian Railway Monument.
