MEDIA RELEASE

Tamworth Students Top the State

18th December 2003

Member for Tamworth Peter Draper has commended all students who completed their Higher School Certificate this year, and in particular congratulated two outstanding Tamworth students for their excellent results in the HSC examinations. All NSW HSC students received their results today, with two Tamworth students topping the state in a subject.

Tanya Hosking, a student of Tamworth High was first in NSW in Senior Science, while Matthew Fraser of Oxley High was top of the state in Software Design and Development.

“I congratulate both Tanya and Matthew on their outstanding results,” Mr Draper said. “I was fortunate enough to attend the presentation award nights for both Tamworth High and Oxley, and both these students are shining examples of all that is good about public education.”

“They were both very prominent on the awards nights, and are terrific role models for their fellow students.”

“I wish both Tanya and Matthew every success with their future careers, and I am certain they will be a great success in whatever career they choose.”

End Release.
